

FAILURE OF A RICHMOND MAN.

and every district in the State was represented. prominent members of the party being present who had not met in conference here for years before.

Park Agnew, chairman, invited reports from the various districts and several hours were consumed in hearing and discussing these reports, nearly all of which were rosy at midnight. After all the reports were in a resolution was unanimously passed providing for nominations for Congress in all the districts.

The committee have to elect four members of the committee, and will likely be in session until a late hour.

Mrs. Indiana Eubank, wife of Mr. Nathan A. Eubank, of the Old Dominion Hall and Richmond, died yesterday morning at 6 o'clock at her residence, No. 131 Porter street. She was in the sixty-fourth year of her age, and had been quite sick for the last ten days.

A PHYSICIAN STRICKEN.
Dr. J. Travis Taylor, one of the most popular young physicians in the West End, was stricken suddenly with appendicitis, and is very ill. His condition was not improved today. Dr. Landon B. Edwards is attending him and it has not yet been decided if an operation is necessary.

THE CONFEDERATE DEAD.
Captain J. Taylor Stratton, adjutant of Lee Camp, has received word from the Secretary of the Confederate Veterans' Association, of Washington, D. C., saying that an ideal spot had been set apart in Arlington Cemetery for the reburial of Confederate soldiers interred at the Soldiers' Home, National Cemetery.

It is also stated that a bronze urn will adorn the center of the Confederate soldiers' section at Arlington, and these dead heroes' graves will be designated by a different design of headstones from those over the graves of Union soldiers, in order that they may be easily distinguished apart.

The writer adds that Virginia will have the largest number of dead in this section and that North Carolina comes next.

Commanders of Richmond met today and perfected an organization, with W. D. Turner president.

COMMISSIONS ISSUED.
Commissions have been issued to the following notaries public: James A. Frazier, Rockbridge; E. L. S. Bonten, Fairfax; F. B. Whiting, Clarke; E. B. Conk, Lee, and Leo Judson, Norfolk city.

OLD POINT COMFORT.

THE PERILOUS VOYAGE OF A SAILOR.

Old Point, Va., Aug. 27.—Tied to the bowsprit of the William Jones, colored, drifted from Cape Henry to Old Point lighthouse, a distance of 40 miles, and still lives. This is the remarkable experience which Jones related to the men who took him in. Friday night about 12 o'clock two men were fishing on the wharf leading out from Old Point lighthouse, when Jones came up naked, almost exhausted and with marks on his body which told the terrible agony he had suffered.

Jones said he left New York several days ago on the three-masted schooner John R. King, loaded with 300 tons of fertilizer. On the vessel besides himself were the captain and four other men, whom Jones supposed went down to a watery grave. Everything went well with the vessel until Friday afternoon.

When the storm came up the vessel was entering Cape Henry, as well as Jones could remember. The waters became very rough, and the John R. King was tossed about with a load just as though it was a small canoe. Finally the crash came. The wind was traveling at a velocity of fully 60 miles an hour, and the dashing of the waves caused the boat to part in the middle. They were all cast into the water. Jones says he caught hold of the bowsprit, which was floating just ahead of him. Realizing that he was unable to keep his hold Jones tied himself securely to a spar and began drifting. This was about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. His experience was terrifying, and every minute seemed like an hour. Finally Jones became numb, and when he again regained consciousness he had drifted ashore just above the lighthouse. Seeing a light Jones made his way down the outer front, and came upon the two men, who directed him to the lighthouse keeper, John Jones.

NEWPORT NEWS.

ALL QUESTIONABLE RESORTS TO BE VACATED.

Newport News, Va., Aug. 27.—The police have notified all the lewd women in the Bar Harbor section of the city that they must vacate the houses they now occupy before September 1. If they are any questionable houses in operation in the district after that date the keepers will be arrested and severely dealt with.

The move is regarded as a big start toward wiping out the vice and crime for which the district has long been notorious.

Rev. Lundy R. Wright, pastor of the Lafayette Avenue Baptist Church, and Rev. B. B. Hill, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, last night preached scathing sermons on the wickedness in the district, taking as their topic, "The Problem of Bar Harbor."

PUBLIC MEETING CALLED.

At the minister's meeting yesterday, which was well attended, the following resolution was adopted, calling for a general meeting next Tuesday of those interested in the movement against Bar Harbor:

Resolved, That the Business Men's Association, the labor unions, the churches, the newspapers and all other organizations in favor of the movement be requested to send one or more delegates to a meeting to be held with the view of forming a general co-operative committee to work in this reform movement, and to be further

Resolved, That this meeting shall be called for next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association."

HAMPTON.

"DR. SEXMOUR" IS IN THE TOILS FOR BEATING HOTEL BILL.
Hampton, Va., Aug. 27.—Last night, at the Augusta Hotel, Officer Joe Delistill arrested a man of many aliases and numerous picturesque adventures, if allegations be true. The individual referred to came to the hotel and registered under the name of "Dr. Sexmour."

stered as E. S. Walker. He secured a room. As it happened, he was recognized as the man who, it is alleged, had the Buckroe Hotel out of a board bill. He said his right name was E. S. Morris.

Manager Sampbell, of the Chamberlin Hotel, however, came up and took a view of the prisoner, identifying him as Seymour, who beat that famous hostelry out of about $300, representing himself to be an officer in the English navy, attached to Her Majesty's private yacht Pearl.

The story of this episode has been told in detail elsewhere. After he left the hotel, he was well known in the news came of the arrest in Maryland of a man so nearly resembling the "Doctor" in appearance and experience that the people here were convinced that they were one and the same. But he must have gotten out of his trouble there.

ROANOKE.
The STANDARD OIL COMPANY'S SAFE CRACKED.
Roanoke, Va., Aug. 27.—On Friday night at about 11 o'clock robbers entered the office of the Standard Oil Company and blew open the steel safe with dynamite and extracted about $35 in currency. The building is on Kimball avenue, in Northeast Roanoke, and fronts on the car line. It sets apart a few yards, maybe twenty-five feet from any other building.

This accounts for the people in the vicinity not having been aroused by the noise of the explosion.

Pleasure Pier, Ocean View.

It can be safely said that one of the best performances as a whole seen at the View this season was the one put on by Manager Elam at the Pier Theater last night. He has certainly gotten together a great combination for this week's bill. The headliners are Vano and Anvo, handcuft wizards, also introduced the new "Arabian" trunk and pilory substitution. They led the audience spell-bound, and their work perhaps eclipsed anything of its kind ever seen in this section.

The Pier Theater Sisters, singers and dancers, presented themselves as one of the features of the show. The Old Dominion Quartette, in plantation songs, jubilee melodies, come-along-yes, barnyard imitations and popular songs, acquitted themselves with distinction. They are one of the best heard in this section in years. Wm. H. Ward, the singing comedian, was accorded a hearty welcome. Mr. Ward is the author of all the songs he sings, and his vocal hits went to the point, and were well taken. There will be a matinee to-day at 4:30; evenings at 8:30. Ten cents admits to pier and show.

CONFERENCE BETWEEN BOARD OF TRADE COMMITTEE AND SPECIAL AGENT CREWS.

The committee appointed by the Board of Trade met yesterday at noon to consider the telephone subject. The Southern Bell Telephone Company is proposing to change and increase its rates. The committee was as follows: Messrs. W. H. Wales, chairman; D. J. Callahan, H. Hodges and R. H. Jones.

This committee met in conference with Mr. J. W. Crews, special agent of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, and in compliance of a request from a former meeting of the Board of Trade.

Among other questions the committee asked if the report of the proposed increase in prices of telephone service is true.

Mr. Crews said: "Yes, on expiring contracts, after thirty days' notice, existing contracts, of course, to be respected. New contracts will be made for one year."

"What loss from operation did your company sustain last year?" Unable to answer.

"Are you operating at a loss at Richmond, Petersburg, Danville, Raleigh, Lynchburg and Roanoke?" Unable to answer.

"Who owns the conduits?" Unable to answer.

"How many phones are being operated in Norfolk, including Berkley?" Answer: "Nine hundred business, 650 residential."

James J. Jeffries, the champion heavy-weight pugilist of the world, umpired four innings of baseball at League Park yesterday afternoon before about 3,000 people. The public was led to believe that Jeffries would umpire the whole game alone, but in this they were badly fooled, as he only umpired the base decisions, while Flanagan looked after the bats and strikes.

During the presence of Jeffries on the field there was not a kick registered, and as soon as he quit and left Flanagan in charge the Portsmouth team did their customary "baby act" and set up a howl on a base decision, which a blind person could see was fair and impartial. "Well, we won't play," said Captain Clark, unless we get another umpire." That settled it. Everybody crowded on the field and surrounded the "little boys" from over the river. It was a disorderly scene—a raw deal for the people who had paid their quarters to witness a game of baseball, with Jeffries as a side show, and not a lot of rag-chewing, such as was dished out by O'Brien, Clark and several other members of the Portsmouth team.

As soon as it became certain that the game would not be played to the limit, the crowd set up a yell, "Give us something for our money," they cried. About this time Flanagan went to the front of the grand stand and announced that as Portsmouth refused to play the game was forfeited to Norfolk, to be immediately after this "Eddie" Cook, Jeffries' manager on this expedition, announced that the champion and Jack McCormick would box three three-minute rounds and asked the crowd to clear the field. After about fifteen minutes had passed the boxers appeared, McCormick dressed in blue tights, while Jeffries wore blacks, with striped stockings and a red, white and blue belt. The exhibition put up by these two renowned pugilists was purely a fake. There never was so much money made in such little time, and by such deception as was heaped upon the citizens of this vicinity yesterday. The boxing exhibition lasted about five minutes, and did not cause any one to gaze in wonder.

The two big champs knew they had struck a crowd of suckers, and they did not intend to exert themselves in giving them their money's worth. Some of the most prominent citizens in the city, who like clean sport, said they never saw such dirty deception as that meted out to the public yesterday, and it would take a thousand Jeffries and McCormicks to get them to witness another such exhibition.

Everybody left the park disgusted, scoring the management as a bunch of such rakes, and that whenever they wanted to see another boxing contest they would rather give their quarters to a local man, who could, without exaggeration, give more satisfaction than either of the big fellows did yesterday.

South Norfolk Burglars Made Their Usual

Round Sunday Night—Sensational Scrap

on Liberty Street—Arrival of Cattle for Stock Yards.

The Torrent Fire Department was called out to a small fire, but one of mysterious origin, in the residence of Mr. L. N. Godwin, on Liberty street, last night about 8:30 o'clock. On reaching the scene the door was broken open and the inside facing of the dining room door was burning at the floor.

The family were at the park and the lamp was still burning on the table. The damages were comparatively small.

BURGERS MAKE USUAL

While the burglars of South Norfolk were making their usual rounds Sunday night their presence was detected by a watchman, Mr. F. H. Lassiter, in time for him to get two shots at them as they fled.

The shooting aroused other citizens in the immediate community, and two men came out in time to shoot at the burglars twice as they were making their escape.

SCRAP ON LIBERTY STREET.

Quite a sensational "scrap" occurred on Liberty street yesterday morning between a Liberty street merchant and two other white men. The latter passed along before the merchant's place of business and kicked over his garbage baskets, and were asked by the merchant for an explanation of the men used abusive language. The merchant took what he had to say until forbearance ceased to be a virtue and he did one of his men up so badly in the second round that the other concluded that he wanted no hand in the game. The two men left, but quickly returned, the one who was challenging his man again, when the other came out and did him for the second time. No arrests were made.

CATTLE ARRIVES.

Four carloads of South Virginia cattle (sheep and lambs) arrived on the Norfolk and Western for the Belt Line Union Stock Yards yesterday, and before night all of the lot was sold, the sales running up into several thousand dollars.

Four carloads will arrive from Wytheville, Va., to-day over the Norfolk and Western. Captain Young, the manager, said yesterday that the business had already been beyond the company's expectations.

HIT WITH BEER BOTTLE.

Mr. Geo. D. Mansfield, while in Mr. N. H. Palmer's saloon, corner of Chestnut and Pearl streets, last evening about 8 o'clock, was hit in the head with a beer bottle and a gash of several inches was cut in his forehead. He was carried to his home, on Virginian street, where he received medical attention.

TALE OF A WATCH.

While David Brown, colored, was in possession of his lady friend's watch thieves broke in and captured the timepiece. Yesterday morning the watch was found in H. Bangle's repair shop, on Liberty street extended, and a warrant was issued for its recovery. In the court Bangle testified that he bought the watch from a colored man, but did not know his name. The watch was given back to its owner, Susie Smith, and the warrant was dismissed.

BRIEF MENTION.

Miss Louella Saunders, who has been visiting the Misses Winborne's, on Chestnut street, left yesterday for her home, in Elwood, Va.

Miss Laura Johnson left yesterday for a visit to relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. Frank Cashin has returned from Matlew's County to her home, on Chestnut street.

into an applauding throng. The act is but one of about the best all-round bill of vaudeville that has been witnessed here for a long time.

The juggling of Eldora and Norine is a feature of the bill. The duo are masters of their art. They perform feats that are very clever, and caused great applause. Rueda and Bruche, in a comedy sketch, had a good deal to do with the success of the show. The clever German comedian and comic edienne presented original comedy. A. S. Smith and Nina, in their original sketch, and Nina's beautiful dance, which, though not on the program, was one of the features of the bill.

'Landgrabbers' Favor Expansion.
The Richmond "land-grabbing" syndicate, organized to take advantage of the famous "land-grabbers" act, it is reported, will extend operations to Norfolk as well as to other cities in the State. There is still considerable delinquency in the matter of land being grabbed on the books here. The "land-grabbers" favor reaching out for every thing in sight.

Hall's Catarrh Cure takes internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Rheumatism is as much a blood disease as cancer, ulcer, or scrofula, and the cure to stay cured it should be treated as such; hence Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.) should be used. It neutralizes the specific poison that causes Rheumatism, expels it from the system, and permanently cures after everything else fails. George W. Leonard, of Atlanta, writes under date of July 2, 1899, that he was cured of Rheumatism ten years ago by B. B. B.; that before that he suffered most excruciating pains in bones and limbs. His hands would puff up and swell, his knee caps would get so stiff he could hardly bend them, and he could hardly walk without the aid of a crutch. He tried doctors and medicines, but none reached the root of the trouble, which was in the blood. Sometimes he thought he had found a cure, but alas, his symptoms would come back again. He was cured ten years ago by the use of B. B. B., and he has never since been troubled. To further convince you that B. B. B. cures the most obstinate cases we will give a sample bottle of B. B. B. free, so you may test the remedy at our expense. Can anything be fairer?
